zimzala (meaning sand between your toes) and that's literally what you experience when you dine at our chic, award winning, beachside restaurant.

zimzala is a family owned business which reflects on the quality of service and atmosphere pertaining to this beachside gem. it's the perfect combination of casual and fine dining with a relaxed ocean front setting.

zimzala is a highly sought after wedding venue due to the restaurants close proximity to many breathtaking beachside ceremony locations and stunning photography opportunities. with cool elegant interiors, a relaxed beachy ambience and the sound of waves gently breaking on the shore you would be forgiven for thinking you are on a peaceful tropical island.

zimzala is the perfect setting for a romantic wedding...

a personal event coordinator from zimzala will be available to assist you with your beachside ceremony and/or reception and will offer assistance and advice with other important particulars such as florists, wedding celebrants, entertainers, photographers, hair and make-up artists etc.

no two weddings are ever the same and we pride ourselves in ensuring that every fine detail is met with 100% individuality. zimzala comfortably seats 70 people for an intimate formal 3 course reception or a cocktail style reception with up to 110 people. (please note that it is a prerequisite to book out the restaurant exclusively if you have 30 or more guests).

we offer the following sample menu choices and beverage lists for you to use as a guide line only as we are constantly changing our menus to take advantage of the best seasonal produce available. the price per person however remains the same! beverages may be pre selected from the lists provided and charged on a consumption basis. alternatively, you may like to take advantage of one of our beverage packages.
